PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

The following words from the pen of an unknown author seem very fitting to use at the beginning of another club year. I hope you will like them as much as I do.

"Today we begin a journey. Let us select what we shall need, what we shall use and what we shall take, to make this a happy successful and pleasant experience.

"We shall need confidence, not only in ourselves, but in others. We must, like Lincoln, be willing to learn something from everyone we meet.

"We shall need strength to put our hearts and minds into everything we do. We shall need sight and insight, to look for the beauty, harmony and peace of life, that is waiting to be expressed through us, around us and for us. We must know that wherever we go we shall be surrounded with love, friendship and enthusiasm.

"We shall need determination to give and forgive, more freely than ever before. We must see God in every flower, in every cloud, in every face and be prepared to help others.

"We shall need to rely upon the One Unfailing Source to refresh mind and body in wisdom, in knowledge, in understanding and courage. So shall we be able to take up the duties of our every day lives."

of today.

The real meaning of life is service.

The real meaning of service is working together.

A COLLECT FOR CLUBWOMEN

Keep us, O God, from pettiness; let us be large in thought, in word, in deed.

Let us be done with fault-finding and leave off self-seeking.

May we put away all pretense and meet each other face to face without self-pity and without prejudice.

May we never be hasty in judgment and always generous.

Let us take time for all things; make us grow calm, serene, gentle.

Teach us to put into action our better impulses, straightforward and unafraid.

Grant that we may realize it is the little things that create differences; that in the big things of life we are at one.

And may we strive to touch and know the great, common woman's heart of us all, and, O Lord God, let us not forget to be kind!

—MARY STEWART, Colorado, 1904

FLAG SALUTE

"I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America and to the Republic for which it stands; one Nation, under God, indivisible with Liberty and Justice for All."

STAR SPANGLED BANNER

O say: can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming?

Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,

O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming;

And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.

O say, does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh thus be it ever when free men shall stand
Between their loved homes and the war's desolation
Blessed with victory and peace, may the heav'n rescued land

Praise the power that hath made and preserved us a nation

Then conquer we must, when our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust."

And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

GOD BLESS AMERICA

God Bless America, Land that I love
Stand beside her, and guide her,
Through the night with a light from above,
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans, white with foam,
God Bless America, My home sweet home—
From the mountains, to the prairies,
To the oceans, white with foam,
God Bless America, My home sweet home,
God Bless America, My home sweet home.

AMERICA, THE BEAUTIFUL

O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain,
For purple mountain majesties,
Above the fruited plain.
America! America!
God shed His grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood,
From sea to shining sea.

UNDERSTANDING

If I knew the heart of you,
And you the soul of me,
We'd laugh and cry together always,
As friendly as could be.

And never would we lose our faith
Though near or far apart;
If I but knew the soul of you,
And you could read my heart.

THANKSGIVING

Thank Thee, God, for love that crowns each busy day
And, thank Thee, too, for simple things we find along the way—

For little children romping 'round
For bird song, gay and happy sound
Through sun and rain;

For friends to greet, loved ones near,
For songs to share, perchance a tear,
For strength to work, for gift to play,
For fireside at the close of day

And candlelight again!

Thank Thee, God, for all the lovely, simple things
That each day brings.

—ELEANOR FREY

DECEMBER

CHRISTMAS!

There's more, much more to Christmas
Than candlelight and cheer;
It's the spirit of sweet friendship,
That brightens all the year;
It's thoughtfulness and kindness,
It's hope reborn again,
For peace, for understanding,
And for goodwill to men.

JANUARY

NEW YEAR

To leave the old with a burst of song,
To recall the right and forgive the wrong;
To forget the thing that binds you fast
To vain regrets of the year that's past;
To have the strength to let go your hold
Of the not worthwhile of the days grown old,
To dare go forth with a purpose true,
To the unknown task of the year that's new,
To help your brother along the road,
To do his work and lift his load,
To add your gift to the world's good cheer,
Is to have and to give a Happy New Year.

PRESIDENT'S SYMPHONY

"You gave me a beautiful song this year,
One which comes to but few;
The melody was mine to sing,
But the harmony came from you,
Some of the notes were in minor mode
A few of somber hue;
But most of the song rang bright and clear
With the courage of all of you.
I know that as the years roll onward
Whatever they may bring,
I shall look with joy on this past year,
And the song you gave me to sing."

There are stars that go out in the darkness,
But whose silver light shineth on;
There are roses whose perfume lingers
When the blossoms are faded and gone.
There are hearts full of light and of sweetness,
When no longer their life current flows,
Still their goodness lives on with the living
Like the souls of the star and the rose.
